PRIMARIES.—The Republicans of Hudson County held primary meetings last night to elect delegates to a Convention, to be held at Newark on the 16th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress.

RIOT AT NORTH BERGEN-SEVERAL PERSONS IN-JURED.-Three young men, named David Swain, Frederick H. Turner, and John Faulkner, were taken before Justice Martin of Hudson City on Saturday af-before Justice Martin of Hudson City on Saturday afternoon, charged with felonicusly assanlting and beating Mary Thompson (colored), Louis Bocke, Francis Witt, and Julia Miller, with their fists, and also firing gams at the above-named persons.

It appears that the a secused pa ties were in the vicinity of Seacaucus, fishing and hunting; and, in passing Mrs. Thompson's house stopped in and called for something to drink. Mrs. T. replied rather abraptly that she had nothing for them to drink, and that, had they desired it, they could have procured a drink at the lager-beer saloon which they had just passed. Upon that it is alleged that one of the party told Mrs. Thompson "that she need not be so saucy about it," and then struck her ore or more blows in the face. Upon this the children ran out and cried "murder," when Mr. Witt, who was passing in a wagon, went into the house, and was also assanlted. The children in the mentime alarmed some of the neighbors, seven or eight of whom pursuad the young men into a field where a fierce light ensued during which it is said the guns were disci arged once or twice. The inhabitants succeeded in taking the guns from the young men.

Faulkner received a severe cut across the forehead with a gun a bad bruise on the shoulder, and a stab on the right arm, the blade of the knife penetrating an inch and a half deep.

Swain received a severe cut over the head with a morning after the affray, his wife gave premature birth to a child, and that she had been beaten about the bonds each, and Faulkner in $600, for their appearance at the October Term of Court.

These young men yesterday took preliminary slepe toward causing the arrest of the other party.

terday afternoon, Justice Martin of Hudson City issaed a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary Kelly, who resides in one of the shanties in the rear of Shaft No. 3, resides in one of the shanties in the rear of Shaft No. 3, in which she is charged with committing a felonious assault upon Peter Conner. Conner made an affidavit that on Sunday afternoon, while at the house of the accused, she struck him with some weapon, inflicting a dangerous wound over his left eye, and a second blow on the back of the h-ad, knocking him insensible, and then beat him over the arms, shoulders, and body. The injured man is confined to his ted, and is seriously, if not dangerously, injured. Mrs. Kelly was subsequently arrested and committed to jait.

A DANGEROUS MISSILE.—On Saturday afternoon A DANGEROUS MISSIER.—On Saturday sates while some laborers were engaged digging in a sand-bank near the Long Dock, a patent rocket, with a heavy iron head, descended with great force, and was baried in the sand, within times feet of them. It is supposed that these rockets are americally the same of the purpose of carrying a fine from wrecked vessels to the chore, and that parties were experimenting with them.

THE SUNDAY LIQUOR-LAW.—Henry F. Lohman, keeper of a lager-beer saloon, at No 211 Grove street, Jersey City, was arrested yesterday, and fined $20 by Recorder Tilden, on a charge of violating the Sunday liquor-law.

LATER FROM WALKER'S EXPEDITION. DEMAND OF THE BRITISH COMMANDER-BRITISH

FRIGATE AND NINE HUNDRED MEN BEFORE TRUXILLO-NINE HOURS' HEAVY CANNONADING. From The New-Orleans Picayune, Sept. 5. The schooner Isaac Toucey, Capt. Hansen, arrived at this port yesterday, direct from Ruatan Island, the 24th ult. On the 23d arrived at Fort McDonald the bark Active, one of the little coasters plying between the main land and the Island, direct from Traxilo the same morning, with intelligence that a well-armed force of Hondurians, partisans of Guardiola, namber ug some 900 men, was before that city, sice the 6th in possession of Walker, preparing to attack it.

possession of Walker, preparing to attack it.

The Active also reported that on the 19th an English man-of-war, name not given, made her appearance before Tuxillo, and demanded the surrender of the port into the hands of the ejected authorities who alone, it was declared, had the right to dispose of the customs revenue, which were being collected by Walker. The British commander had also given public notice that all vessels entering or leaving the port of Truxillo must pay beforehand, or give security for the payment hereafter, of all port charges, to what was claimed to be the rightful Government of Honduras, viz: that of Guardiola. He had also given notice that he was in-every hazard, in all their rights of property and elizenship.

On the 24th, the day the Toucey sailed from Rustan, the news was brought in that heavy cannonading had been heard at sea all that morning, from 3 o'clock until noon, a space of nine hours, in the direction of Traxillo. The cannonading is described as sharp and quick, and the supposition is that the town was being attacked on both sides simultaneously, on the land side by the native Honduran forces, and on the sea side by the British man-of-war—against both of whom Walker had to defend himself at the same time.

This is all supposition, it it true, yet has a basis of

This is all supposition, it it true, yet has a basis of probability in the facts already known. The news brought up by the last arrival was to the effect that the opposing Houdurans had been a sembling in great numbers before the town, and preparing to attack it, while Walker was remounting the guns, and redoubling every energy to put his position in the best state of de-eral statement. It was known that the town was to be attacked, and that Walker was preparisg to defend it against every hazard.

The man-f-war referred to is doubtless the Icarus, which has been emissing in these waters, apparently watching Walker's movements, the last six nonths. Under whore or what instructions her commander acts, we have no means of positively knowing. Were it not for the length of time she has been on the coast, with apparently a special object in view, we might think she acted under the instruction or avives of Mr. Price, Superintendent of the Belize, and Lieut.-Governor ad interim of the Bay Islands.

The length of time, however, the Icarus has been in those waters with the known fact that a large party of Walker's men had their rendezvous on the Island of Rustan, make it probable that she had instructions directly from home. And this supposition is strengthened by the fact that the British Consul at Comayagna and other officials in the State, and at the Bulke, have openly esponsed the cause of the Government of Handuras, at the head of which is Guardiola, as against the opposing party and from time to time, as we isarn from the official gazette, given information of his movements.

As to the actual condition of Truxillo before this at-

As to the actus' condition of Trakino delere this attack was made upon it, we learn that it was almost entirely deserted of its old inhabiliants. Those who sided actively with Guardiola had gene into the neighboring country, where they doubless contributed their quota to the native forces, reported to be before the town. Those who sided with Walker were, of course, with him; while the neutrals, who only cared for their lives, had fled to the neighboring islands of Little and Rusten.

been known to take advantage of this freedom of the city to spy out Walker's forces, movements, and means of defense.

We are also assured that perfect order reigned in the city, and all legitima's business was prite ted, and, excepting the suspicious from the general flight, went on as before. Two negroes, who were taken in the act of breaking open stores and robbing, had been shot in the rublic source.

of breaking open stores and robbing, had been shot in the public square.

As to the chances of Walker's successful defense, in case, as believed, he has thus been attacked from both land and sea, we have only the same means of judging as the reader himself. As before stated, he has possition of one of the best fortified places of Central America, where he found 18 pieres of cannon 18 and 24-pounders, some 150 small arms, and a large quantity of stores and ammuni ion. He is said also to have the sympathy and active support of a large party of the native people; but how far these advantages will have enabled him to make good his defecte against the Government he has overthrown and the British combined, remains to be seen.

I remains to be seen.

Guardiola. He had also given notice that he was in-structed to protect the people of Honduras, at any and every hazard, in all their rights of property and citi-ferse. We may add here, also, that intelligent gentlemen, direct hither by the last two arrivals, and personally a quainted with Walker's position, the town, and fortifications of Truxillo, and the state of feeling among the Hondurans, put every credit in the truth of the general statement. It was known that the town was to be attacked, and that Walker was preparing to defend
